

WHO Factsheet: Hypertension.

Hypertension (high blood pressure) is when the pressure in your blood vessels is too high (140/90 mmHg or higher). Common symptoms include severe headaches, chest pain, dizziness, difficulty breathing, nausea, and blurred vision. It is often called a silent killer because most people with hypertension have no symptoms at all.